

the no call law in nj is wonderful. I hope that the fcc does not rule on the side of businesses instead of individuals. the economy is just fine without being flooded with useless and unwanted phone solicitation